ROBBERY AT SEA. Two sailors, named John Lein and N. Nugent, belong ing to the ship Rappabannock, were arrested yesterday merning, by officers Newman and Cogaghan, and brought before Mr. Ludwig Semler, attached to the Emigrant De-partment of the Mayor's Office, on a charge of having partment of the Mayor's Office, on a charge of having robbed three passengers, M. O'Brien, W. Cender and H. Koer, on board said ship, of a large amount of property, sensisting of clothes and other articles, while on the passage to New York. As this case does not come within the jurisdiction of the civil courts—the larceny having been committed on the high seas—the prisoners were placed under the custody of officer Nevin, of the United States Court, where the trial will take place.
